BOB GOVAN IS LOST IN NEW YORK FOR THREE HOURS

DECLARES EASTERN CITY DOES NOT LOOK LIKE A PERMANENT CAMP

Robert G. Govan of the Mizpah hotel, who was a delegate to the republican national convention at Chicago, is now sojourning in New York City, and is taking in the sights of that camp. In a telegram received by Judge J. F. Daniels, Govan gives his views of the eastern district. He declared that there were quite a number of canyons in New York, but had his doubts if it would make a permanent camp.

"It has not the showing of Tonopah and I don't think the place is permanent," telegraphed Govan. The hotel man wired that he was looking for the trend of the ledge, but so far could discover nothing but surface indications. "Over 3000 people were on the streets here yesterday," telegraphed Govan. "I think there must have been a circus in town to draw the great crowd, although I looked at the bill boards and could find no pictures of elephants or acrobats. I got lost yesterday and it took a policeman and a taxicab three hours to locate my hotel. Blamed if I didn't forget where I was staying. I have an elegant suite of rooms in a fashionable apartment house. Cost me 35 cents a night. The Waldorf was too expensive and besides they insisted that I wear a boiled shirt and a claw hammer coat to dinner. So I left."

"Will return to Tonopah as soon as the money runs out."

SHIPMENT OF FIREWORKS HAS BEEN RECEIVED

Prices are lower than the lowest for cash, is the chief trade mark of the Simons cash store, where cash beats credit. Owing to the tremendous amount of business transacted at this place Mr. Simons has found it necessary to enlarge the store during the last few months, and with the business steadily increasing he is now cramped for room.

The store is open day and night. In addition to the complete stock of groceries, hardware, wines, liquors, etc., a shipment of fireworks for the Fourth of July has been received and will be sold at city prices.

DEFENSE NOW HAS INNINGS IN CATTLE CASE

STATE RESTS IN TRIAL OF NICK VICO AND JERRY KOMINAGE

The state rested its case this afternoon in the trial of Nick Vico and Jerry Kominage, charged with the felonious killing of a calf belonging to O. K. Reed. The actual taking of testimony was commenced yesterday afternoon after the jury had been sequestered. O. K. Reed, the complaining witness, was first called to the stand and this morning his cross examination was concluded. The state also called W. G. Cook and Buckskin Sam, the latter an Indian. At 2:30 this afternoon Judge Sanders announced that the state had rested its case. The testimony elicited was exactly the same as that introduced during the first trial which resulted in a disagreement, the jury standing six for conviction and six for acquittal. Kominage was the first witness to be called by the defense and at 3:30 o'clock he continued on the stand. It is expected that the case will be given to the jury tomorrow afternoon or night.

BONANZA CUB REPORTER VICTIM OF CRUEL JOKES

SCENTS A GOOD STORY TO FIND THAT A JOKE IS ATTACHED TO IT

The people of Tonopah have got to quit kicking the Bonanza cub reporter around. Hardly a day passes but what the cub is made the butt of some joke, and then everybody laughs and embarrasses our news gatherer. Naturally the cub reporter becomes peevish and slows up on his work.

This afternoon the cub was strolling in front of the Mizpah hotel and approached one of the waiters from the Mizpah grill.

"What is new?" inquired the waiter of elusive items.

"Big accident down the street," was the reply.

"What was it?"

"Automobile ran into a butcher shop delivery wagon."

"Anybody hurt?" inquired the Bonanza's Scoop as he reached for notebook and pencil.

"Well, the automobile knocked the liver out of the wagon," was the reply, and the cub reported continued on his way.

Poor old dad.
